

Please add my name to those OPPOSED to your media reform initiative.

Further consolidation of media will only FURTHER DETERIORATE the quality of news available to the public. Right now we must attempt to obtain foreign news channels to get even a partially even-handed view of what's going on in the world!